

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Milton Hileman

Mr. Milton Hileman is a Senior Military Analyst in the CALL Analyst Branch, Lessons Learned Division, at the Center for Army Lessons Learned at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He joined the CALL in 2004 as a senior military analyst. His duties include collection, review and analysis, and processing observations, insights, and lessons from current military operations, training exercises, and from CALL observation detachments embedded with the Battle Command Training Program (BCTP). Mr. Hileman provides lessons and trends in techniques, tactics, and procedures that focus on unit effectiveness and mission accomplishment. Mr. Hileman is primary analyst for the BCTP, detainee operations, and the First 100 Days series. He has authored six professional articles and five handbooks, and a special study for the CALL.

Mr. Hileman is a retired U.S. Army Major. He enlisted in the US Army Reserve in 1974, and received a commission through the ROTC Program in 1978. His assignments include duty with the 82nd Airborne Division, 3rd Armored Division, 1st Armored Division, National Training Center, and Battle Command Training Program. He commanded a tank company for 26 months in Germany, and served as a battalion S3 during Operation Desert Storm. He has over 50 rotations as an Observer Controller/Trainer at the National Training Center.

Mr Hileman holds a Bachelor of Science from the Pennsylvania State University, and a Master of Arts from Webster University.

Mr Hileman's military awards include the Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Southwest Asia Service Medal, Kuwait Liberation Medal, and Master Parachutist Badge. He has twice earned the Commander's Award for Civilian Service.